SUBJECT INDEX

Articles—a. Reviews–r.

Associationalism:
  social pluralism and social control: a. 279–95
Automated socio-technical environments:
  and social regulation: a. 261–78

Bloody code:
  decline of: a. 1–13
British Crime Survey (1994):
  fear of crime, poverty and vulnerability: a. 414–36

Capture theory: a. 655–70
Closed circuit television cameras, open street:
  crime and fear of crime, effects on: a. 688–705
Children:
  as offenders and victims: r. 174–8
  as victims of violence in the Caribbean: a. 239–60
Colquhoun, Patrick: a. 706–22
Corporate crime:
  environmental, media reporting of in America: a. 112–26
Crack cocaine:
  street dealing: r. 753–5
Crime fiction:
  psychoanalytic approach to: r. 180–2
  on TV and effects on crime reconstruction programmes: r. 762–4 Crime prevention:
  in automated societies: a. 261–78
  community and private sector involvement in: a. 347–75
  situational: a. 376–98
Crime reconstruction programmes: r. 762–4
Criminalization:
  of Israeli Arab population (1948–66): a. 570–89
  of young people: r. 174–8
Criminal justice:
  in comparative perspective: r. 182–4
Criminology:
  anthropological contribution to: r. 752–3 contemporary and social theory: a. 189–204
  critical:
    r. 163–5
    r. 746–9
  cultural: r. 545–8
  and late onset offending: a. 497–509
  left realist: r. 550–2
  and market society:
    r. 163–5
    a. 222–38
  as moral and empirical science: a. 146–62
  paradigm shifts explained: a. 296–320 psychoanalytic: r. 165–8
  western:
    occidentalist bias of: a. 239–60

Domestic violence: see Women
Drugs:
  crack cocaine dealers, ethnography of: r. 753–5
  international control of: r. 755–7 traffickers, sentencing of: a. 742–5

Environmental crime:
  media reporting of in America: a. 112–26
Exclusion:
  paradigm of and post-modern penal policy: a. 205–21
Execution:
  public, decline of in England: a. 1–13

Fear of crime:
  age and gender differences in: a. 451–67
  and closed circuit television, open street, in Glasgow: a. 688–705
  and holidaymakers: a. 468–79
  social psychology of: a. 399–413
  vulnerability, measures of: a. 437–50

Governmentality: a. 321–39

Help on arrest:
  black detainees and the experience of: a. 635–54
High crime societies:
  culture of: a. 347–75
Hyatt-Williams, Arthur: r. 165–8

Immigration:
  and crime in America: r. 760–2

Market society:
  rise of and critical criminology:
    r. 163–5
    a. 222–38
Mass media:
  constructions of crime and criminal justice: r. 545–8
  crime reconstruction programmes: r. 762–4
  environmental crime, reporting of in America: a. 112–26
  violence, images of: r. 750–1
Mental Health Act 1983, section 48:
  a study of its use: a. 723–41

SUBJECT INDEX

Articles—a. Reviews–r.

Associationalism:
  social pluralism and social control: a. 279–95
Automated socio-technical environments:
  and social regulation: a. 261–78

Bloody code:
  decline of: a. 1–13
British Crime Survey (1994):
  fear of crime, poverty and vulnerability: a. 414–36

Capture theory: a. 655–70
Closed circuit television cameras, open street:
  crime and fear of crime, effects on: a. 688–705
Children:
  as offenders and victims: r. 174–8
  as victims of violence in the Caribbean: a. 239–60
Colquhoun, Patrick: a. 706–22
Corporate crime:
  environmental, media reporting of in America: a. 112–26
Crack cocaine:
  street dealing: r. 753–5
Crime fiction:
  psychoanalytic approach to: r. 180–2
  on TV and effects on crime reconstruction programmes: r. 762–4 Crime prevention:
  in automated societies: a. 261–78
  community and private sector involvement in: a. 347–75
  situational: a. 376–98
Crime reconstruction programmes: r. 762–4
Criminalization:
  of Israeli Arab population (1948–66): a. 570–89
  of young people: r. 174–8
Criminal justice:
  in comparative perspective: r. 182–4
Criminology:
  anthropological contribution to: r. 752–3 contemporary and social theory: a. 189–204
  critical:
    r. 163–5
    r. 746–9
  cultural: r. 545–8
  and late onset offending: a. 497–509
  left realist: r. 550–2
  and market society:
    r. 163–5
    a. 222–38
  as moral and empirical science: a. 146–62
  paradigm shifts explained: a. 296–320
  psychoanalytic: r. 165–8
  western:
    occidentalist bias of: a. 239–60

Domestic violence: see Women
Drugs:
  crack cocaine dealers, ethnography of: r. 753–5
  international control of: r. 755–7
  traffickers, sentencing of: a. 742–5

Environmental crime:
  media reporting of in America: a. 112–26
Exclusion:
  paradigm of and post-modern penal policy: a. 205–21
Execution:
  public, decline of in England: a. 1–13

Fear of crime:
  age and gender differences in: a. 451–67
  and closed circuit television, open street, in Glasgow: a. 688–705
  and holidaymakers: a. 468–79
  social psychology of: a. 399–413
  vulnerability, measures of: a. 437–50

Governmentality: a. 321–39

Help on arrest:
  black detainees and the experience of: a. 635–54
High crime societies:
  culture of: a. 347–75
Hyatt-Williams, Arthur: r. 165–8

Immigration:
  and crime in America: r. 760–2

Market society:
  rise of and critical criminology:
    r. 163–5
    a. 222–38
Mass media:
  constructions of crime and criminal justice: r. 545–8
  crime reconstruction programmes: r. 762–4
  environmental crime, reporting of in America: a. 112–26
  violence, images of: r. 750–1
Mental Health Act 1983, section 48:
  a study of its use: a. 723–41

Mental illness:
and late onset criminality: a. 497–509 Mentally disordered offenders:
and use of Mental Health Act: a. 723–41
Moral regulation:
history of: r. 767–8

Neo-liberalism: see Market society

Parker, Tony: r. 542–4
Penal reform:
in Canadian women's prisons: a. 510–31 humanistic: r. 173–4
post-modern:
a. 127–43
a. 205–221
public execution, decline of in England: a. 1–13 and restorative justice: a. 222–38
Police:
civilian oversight schemes, international developments reviewed: a. 655–70 Colquhoun, Patrick: a. 706–22 community, models of: r. 706–22 complaints process, complainants' views of: a. 613–34 and domestic violence, response to: a. 14–36 organizational and cultural change in South Africa: a. 553–69 private:
in automated societies: a. 261–78
in Britain: r. 170–2
in high crime societies: a. 347–75 race and the experience of custody: a. 635–54 Royal Ulster Constabulary: collective identity and opposition to reform: a. 68–87 legitimacy construction and role of public attitude surveys: a. 88–111 television images of: r. 762–4 violence:
racist and police response: r. 532–4 structuration and time-space dynamics: a. 480–96 Pornography:
and sexual violence: r. 539–41
Prison:
British, history and sociology of: r. 544–5 post-modern: a. 205–21 reform, contemporary: r. 173–4 women's:
British: r. 548–50
Canadian: a. 510–31
Private security:
in automated societies: a. 261–78
in Britain: r. 170–2
and crime prevention: a. 347–75 Prostitution:
and self-identity:
a. 37–55
r. 178–80
Psychoanalysis:
and crime fiction: r. 180–2 and violent offenders: r. 165–8

Race: and criminalization of Israeli Arab population (1948–66): a. 570–89
police:
and custody, experience of in Britain: a. 635–54 organizational and cultural change in S. Africa, Britain and America: a. 553–69 Racism:
violent, and police response: r. 532–4 Rape: and pornography: r. 539–41
Remand:
and use of Mental Health Act: a. 723–41
Restorative justice: a. 222–38
Risk society:
and dangerization: a. 261–78 management of and globalization: a. 222–38
Royal Ulster Constabulary: see Police

Sentencing:
aggravation and mitigation, effects of: r. 534–7 drug traffickers: a. 742–5 educational absenteeism, effects of: a. 590–612 Sex offending:
patterns of: a. 56–67
and pornography: r. 539–41
School exclusion:
court and youth agency response to: a. 590–612 Social constructionism:
r. 545–8
r. 750–1
Social control:
and associationalism: a. 279–95
Social exclusion:
and crime: r. 174–8
State formations:
and crime, symbiotic relationships between: r. 752–3 Structuration:
time-space dynamics and police violence: a. 480–96

Transgression:
psychoanalysis of: r. 180–2

Victimization: of children: r. 174–8
and fear of crime: a. 399–479 violent racism and police response: r. 532–4 of women and sexual violence: r. 539–41 Vigilantism:
historical overview of: r. 764–7

Weber, Max:
sociology of religion applied to criminology: a. 146–62 Witness:
intimidation and protection programmes: a. 671–87
Women:
Domestic violence victims:
in the Caribbean: a. 239–60 judicial response to in America: r. 757–9 police response to in Britain: a. 14–36
and fear of crime: a. 451–67
pornography and sexual violence: r. 539–41 prisons for:
in Britain: r. 548–50
in Canada: a. 510–31
prostitution and self-identity:
a. 14–36
r. 178–80

Youth crime:
causes of, international evidence reviewed: r. 537–8 and educational absenteeism: a. 590–612 and immigrant communities in America: r. 760–2 and social exclusion: r. 174–8 Youth justice:
r. 174–8
a. 590–612